

Regular admission in a graduate degree program (Education, Higher Education, Sociology, Humanities, Women's Studies, International Studies, Psychology, Criminology, Health Sciences, Counseling, Public Health) at ODU with good academic standing, maintenance of a full course load of student enrollment during the term of their appointment, and a 3.0 or higher GPA is required. Dropping below the required GPA or reducing one's course load below full-time can be grounds for dismissal.

GA will obtain in-depth knowledge of community/University agencies that serve as referral resources for students and others.

GA will gain knowledge about sexual, relationships, and interpersonal violence through coordination of peer education program.

GA will become familiar with university sexual assault policy and procedures.

GA will learn about program development/execution, marketing, curriculum development and assessment.

GA will obtain experience working with committees and teams.

GA will develop an awareness of sexual, relationship, and interpersonal violence issues through researching and reporting data.

GA will enhance their communication skills with diverse student populations.

Annual stipend of $18,500 will be paid over fall ($7,500), spring ($7,500), and summer ($3,500) semesters. Out-of-state students will receive a tuition waiver equivalent to in-state tuition.

The length of the graduate assistantship is 12 months.

